[From the Sunday Delta.] MARYLAND

The Despot's heel is on thy shore,
Maryland!
His touch is at thy Temple door,
Maryland!

Avenge the patriotic gore
That flecked the streets of Baltimore,
And be the battle-queen of yore,
Maryland! My Maryland! Hark to a wandering son's appeal, Maryland!
My mother State! to thee I kneel, For life or death, for woe or weal,

Thy peerless chivalry reveal, And gird thy beautoous limbs with steel, Maryland! My Maryland! Thou will not cower in the dust, Maryland ! Thy beaming sword shall never rust, Maryland! Remember Carroll's sacred trust,

Remember Howard's warlike thrust, And all thy slumberers with the just, Maryland! My Maryland! Come! 'tis the red dawn of the day, Maryland!
With Ringgold's spirit for the fray,
With Watson's blood at Monterey,
With fearless Lowe, and dashing May,
Maryland! My Maryland!

Come! for thy shield is bright and strong, Maryland! Come! thy delaying does thee wrong, Maryland! Come! to thine own heroic throng, That staks with Liberty along, And give a new Key to their song, Maryland! My Maryland!

Dear Mother! burst the Tyrant's chain, Virginia should not cell in vain, Maryland! She meets her sisters on the plain, "Sie Semper"— tis the proud refrain That baffles minions back amain,

Arise in majesty again— Maryland! My Maryland! I see the blush upon thy check, Maryland

For thou wert ever bravely meek But hark! there surges forth a shrick, From hill to hill, from creek to creek-Potomac calls to Chesapeake, Maryland! My Maryland!

Thou wilt not yield the Vandal toll, Thou will not crook to his control Better the fire upon the roll, Better the blade, the shot, the bowl, Than crucifixion of the roul— Maryland | My Maryland |

I hear the distant thunder hum, The Old Line's bugle, fife, and drum, She is not dead, nor deaf, nor dumb! She breathes—she burns! she'll come!

Huzzwi the spura; the Northern settm! Maryland! My Maryland!
